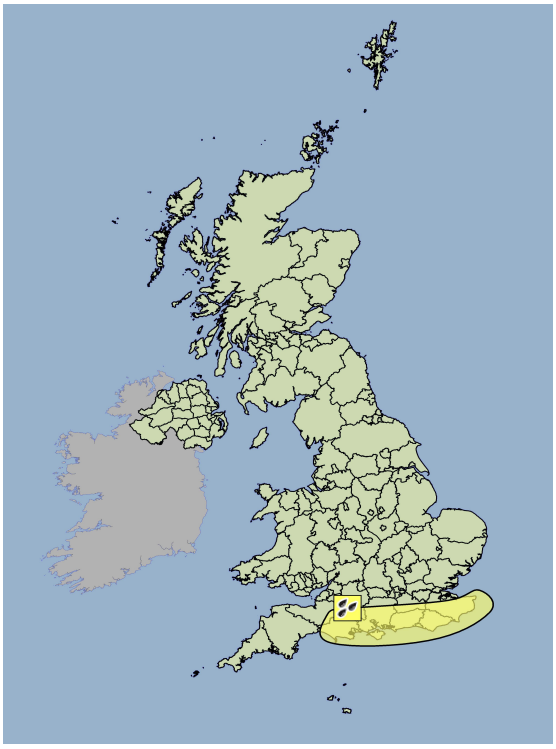
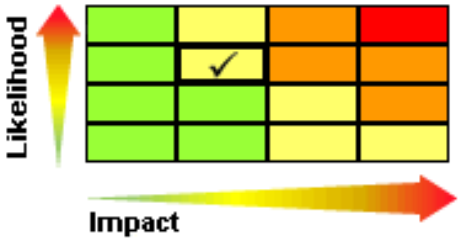
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
Some uncertainty about details of rainfall, but the chance of 15 to 20 mm in a few areas, with the risk of localised flooding impacts as a result. As it turns colder, the rain could even turn to sleet or wet snow, more likely across the Downs and other hillier areas.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Rain

Valid from 00:15 on Wed, 29th Jan 2014 until 21:00 on Wed, 29th Jan 2014

Further rain at times on Wednesday may be locally persistent. The public should be aware of the risk of localised flooding, especially in areas where there are ongoing concerns.
